

SK Ramesh Seedihal's 50th Birthday Party

Weekend Camping Trip in Rigaud, Québec

Around 12 families comprising about 30 people attended the sixth annual council 13881 camping excursion to Camping Choisy in Rigaud, Québec on the weekend of August 12-14, 2011. The campers went swimming in the on-site pool and played volleyball during the day and set up campfires each evening when Halo-Halo (Pilipino bubble tea) and Turon (banana rolls) were also made. The meal menu included boiled and roast sweet corn, fried chicken, goat adobo, tilapia, and many other Filipino specialties. The weather was generally good despite the forecasts for rain.

More than 75 guests including brother knights, squires and family members, featuring the honoree's sister Debbie, nieces Candice and Ashley and nephew Rick, and other friends attended SK Ramesh Seedihal's 50th birthday party held at the intercultural community centre at 6767 Côte-des-Neiges on Saturday, August 21, 2011. The masters of ceremony were Justine Espionaza and Candice Harper. Melissa Floras and Marlow and Company sang several songs after the special dances performed by the men and the women. Attendees were served a buffet menu of BBQ ribs and chicken, curry chicken with roti, pancit, fresh and fried egg rolls, and Caribbean and Lebanese food. Each family of guests was invited to light one of the 50 golden candles and to offer their congratulations and well-wishes.

Birthday Barbecue at GK Nacino's House

About a dozen brother knights and their families and friends attended a barbecue on Saturday, August 27, 2011 to celebrate the birthday of council 13881 grand knight Rey Nacino's wife, Alice. Pork belly and skewers, tilapia, goat, fried chicken as well as rice, pancit, salad, corn, fruit, and various desserts were on the menu. The men manned the barbecue and cooked the corn while the women prepared the other dishes.

Knights are Peacemakers at FAMAS Election
