

Nativity Mural put up at St. Kevin's Parish

Six brother knights worked from 9:30am until 3:30pm with a short lunch break on Saturday, December 6, 2008, installing a nativity scene mural painted by brother Herminio Crisostomo in the middle arch of the front facade at St. Kevin's Parish. The white Christmas lights in all three arches over the doors of the main entrance were also replaced. Two additional entries in the parol competition were then hung from the main lights near the altar inside the church on Sunday, December 7, 2008.

Tri-Council Christmas Party at St. Thomas Apostle Church

More than 150 people from councils no. 13585 (Our Lady of the Philippines), 13881 (St. Kevin's) and 14315 (St. Malachy) attended the Christmas party held in St. Thomas Parish hall on Saturday, December 20, 2008. San Lorenzo Ruiz assembly faithful navigator Jose Tolentino and council 13585 chaplain Father Alvarez received special awards. The council 13881 choir sang three carols. A duet from council 14315 and several former junior Fil-Can idol contestants also performed. Party games, dancing and the presentation of gifts to children by Santa concluded the activities.

Knights organize second Simbang Gabi at St. Kevin's

KofC council no. 13881 organized the second ever Simbang Gabi, a nine-day novena running from December 16-24 in preparation for Christmas, to be held at St. Kevin's. Weekend celebrations were incorporated into the regular 5:00pm Masses while weekday Masses were held at 7:00pm every night. Brother knights were responsible for leading the processions, taking up the collection and directing the communion. Individual Mass sponsors participated in the offertory procession and provided the hospitality food and refreshments after each Mass. An average of more than 200 people attended each service, a significant increase in comparison with the first edition in 2007. The number of Mass sponsorships also increased. The money raised from the sponsorships and the offertory collections was donated to the parish.

Christmas Celebration at St. Kevin's Parish

KofC council 13881 held its Christmas party in St. Kevin's Parish hall on Saturday, December 27, 2008. Deputy Grand Knight Victorio Castillo was the emcee for the event. The buffet table featured chicken, pork, plain rice, pancit, egg rolls, mixed vegetables, and assorted desserts. A ceremony after the dinner featured the presentation of 12 Family of the Month certificates, 35 Certificates of Merit and five Altar Server Awards. The Family of the Year was Mr. & Mrs. Herminio Crisostomo and family and the Knight of the Year was Sonny Valdez. Certificates for perfect attendance and of appreciation were given to SK Bernardo Raquepo and SK Rev. John Lyng, respectively. Seminarian Jason Piper was presented with a cheque for $500. SK Peter Araneta and wife Helen Araneta played the roles of Mr. and Mrs. Claus for the presentation of gifts to the children.
