

New Fraternal Counselor appointed in Montréal

John Casey is your new Fraternal Counsellor and will become a Fourth Degree Knight in September 2011.

John is actively involved in his council and is looking forward to getting to know all of the English speaking members and their families in the eleven councils he will serve in the Montreal region.

John is a strong advocate of the fraternal benefits of the Order including Term and Permanent Insurance, Juvenile and Spousal Plans, Long-Term Care Insurance, Retirement Planning, Investments, Mortgage Insurance, and Estate Preservation... to name a few!

John and his wife Mary Jane presently live in Pointe-Claire. Mary Jane is an active member of her parish involved with children's liturgy and a women's share group. As a father of 7 daughters, ranging in ages from 6 to 28 years old, family is important to John. He also helped raise his nephew who lived with the family from the age of 11. John's two eldest daughters are married and he has three grandchildren with one more on the way. His third eldest daughter will be getting married next spring.

John tries to involve himself with his children's activities, which include hockey, basketball, soccer, and school events. John has coached many of his daughters' hockey teams. He tries to stay active himself, playing hockey and in the summer he helps run a Catholic family retreat center. John and Mary Jane belong to St. John Fisher Parish in Pointe-Claire.

John's work experience includes senior management positions in sales and marketing for companies such as Kraft Foods, Merck Frost, and Mission Itech Hockey. Over the last ten years John owned and managed a company that represented sports equipment manufacturers in Canada. John was born and raised in Montreal and aside from living in Ottawa for a few years, has lived here all his life.

As the Fraternal Counsellor, John is looking forward to serving the members and their families.

He believes that it is very important to inform members of how the order's non-profit status benefits them. Regular meetings with members and their families will be very important.

John is a Knight...just like you!
