Newsletter - March 2008

Brothers are marshals for Way of the Cross

A dozen brothers from Council no. 13881 acted as marshals for the annual outdoor Way of the Cross procession at St. Kevin's on Good Friday, March 21. Brother Herminio Crisostomo had special T-shirts printed with the KofC logo for the marshals to wear. Several brothers also sported reflective safety vests. Despite the cold and windy weather, with gusts up to 50 km/hour, more than 500 people participated in the 2-1/2 hour 15-station 5km march through the Côte-des-Neiges neighbourhood.

Cabane à sucre outing

About 100 people attended a joint excursion of Knights of Columbus Council No. 13881 and the Novo Ecijano Association of Montréal and Suburbs to La Goudrelle cabane à sucre at Mont St-Gregoire, Québec, on Saturday, March 22. Two buses left Plamondon métro station mid-morning and returned in the late afternoon. Participants enjoyed a traditional meal of pea soup, omelette with maple syrup, regular and smoked ham, bacon rinds, homemade baked beans, and maple sugar tarts. Maple taffy on snow was also available. Dancing and hill climbing completed the day.

Member Profile

Chaplain Rev. John Lyng

Our chaplain is a Montréalais, born in 1945 and raised in this unique city. He is the sixth child of Edward Lyng and Veronica Larocque. He has one sister and four brothers and numerous nieces and nephews. He studied theology here at the Grand Seminary and was ordained on May 20, 1972. He has served numerous parishes and also was a hospital chaplain and part-time prison chaplain. He is passionate about the Montréal Canadiens, a sport he grew up playing and watching. He has come to appreciate pancit, but his favorite food is a plate of Italian pasta. Our loving God has been good to him and has at this time in his life sent him to St. Kevin's Parish. He is enjoying his stay. He has good parishioners and a great KofC Council.
