

Mass of Anticipation at St. Gabriel's

Twenty-eight fourth degree knights in regalia from five Montréal area assemblies, D'Arcy McGee #1697, Monseigneur Montmorency #2015, J. Adrian Chabassol #2252, Emile-Z-Lavolette #2326, and San Lorenzo Ruiz #3103, along with district 9 marshall SK William Mastin participated in the opening and closing processions at the annual Mass of Anticipation for the St. Patrick's Parade at Saint Gabriel's Parish on Sunday, March 11, 2012. The Mass was presided by new auxiliary bishop Thomas Dowd with assistance from Rev. SK Father Murray McCrory.

Knights March in Annual St. Patrick's Parade

More than 30 members of KofC councils in the Montréal area participated in the annual St. Patrick's Parade on Sunday, March 18, 2012. An honour guard of about 20 fourth degree sir knights in full regalia was followed by another group of third degree knights and women's auxiliary members. Three current and former masters, Gilles Champagne, Richard Deslongchamps and Joe Labelle led the marchers. State deputy Jean Moyen and his wife were also present.

Grounds Maintenance at St. Kevin's Parish

More than a dozen brother knights worked from 10:00am until 5:00pm with a barbecue lunch break on Saturday, March 24, 2012, raking and bagging the leaves, removing the winter burlap covers from the emerald cedar trees around the forecourt, taking down the exterior Christmas lights and dismantling the winter shelter awning in front of the church. This is the seventh consecutive year that council 13881 has done grounds work at St. Kevin's parish.
